

SchoolTestGenerator

Surname _____

Name _____

TEST SUBJECT

Subtitle

Regulation

- The time at disposal is 60 minutes.
- Electronic devices are forbidden, except for the scientific calculator.
- It's forbidden talking and standing up during the test.
- No notes and no books are allowed.
- An extra point will be given to who'll follow all the rules and to who'll deliver an ordered test.

Evaluation

Evaluation table for the exercises:

100%	The answer is complete and correct with a proper language.
75%	The answer is incomplete, slightly wrong or with an imprecise language.
50%	The answer is incomplete, superficial with diffuse errors and insecure language.
25%	The answer lacks of many parts, with heavy errors or a very insecure language.

Points	$\leq 2$	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	$\geq 10$
Grade	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Extra	Project	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Points (13): _____

Grade: _____

The question points are indicated in the parenthesis.

Different random values

1. (1) Question 1: These are values different for everyone: 16 (int) and -1.75 (float).
2. (1) Question 2: This is a random value from a set: three.
3. (1) Question 3: This question is standard.

Different points and optionality

This is a text for this argument. These questions are also shuffled.

4. (1) Question 4: This question is optional for someone.
5. (3) Question 5: This question has three points.
6. (0) Question 6: This question has no points.

Set of different representations and new lines

7. (1) Question 7:
Here is possible doing this in a single string.
8. (1) Question 8: This question has some space for answer.
9. (1) Question 9:
This question is stored in form of an array in the JSON file.

Combining all this stuff

10. (2) Question 10:
Hello, take some different values: 7, 11.91 and Hi.

SchoolTestGenerator

Surname _____

Name _____

TEST SUBJECT

Subtitle

Regulation

- The time at disposal is 70 minutes.
- Electronic devices are forbidden, except for the scientific calculator.
- It's forbidden talking and standing up during the test.
- No notes and no books are allowed.
- An extra point will be given to who'll follow all the rules and to who'll deliver an ordered test.

Evaluation

Evaluation table for the exercises:

100%	The answer is complete and correct with a proper language.
75%	The answer is incomplete, slightly wrong or with an imprecise language.
50%	The answer is incomplete, superficial with diffuse errors and insecure language.
25%	The answer lacks of many parts, with heavy errors or a very insecure language.

Points	$\leq 2$	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	$\geq 10$
Grade	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Extra	Project	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10

Points (13): _____

Grade: _____

The question points are indicated in the parenthesis.

Different random values

1. (1) Question 1: These are values different for everyone: 28 (int) and -8.79 (float).
2. (1) Question 2: This is a random value from a set: three.
3. (1) Question 3: This question is standard.

Different points and optionality

This is a text for this argument. These questions are also shuffled.

4. (0) Question 6: This question has no points.
5. (1) Question 4: This question is optional for someone.
6. (3) Question 5: This question has three points.

Set of different representations and new lines

7. (1) Question 7:
Here is possible doing this
in a single string.
8. (1) Question 8: This question has some space for answer.
9. (1) Question 9:
This question is stored in form of an array in the JSON file.

Combining all this stuff

10. (2) Question 10:
Hello, take some different values: 1, 11.4 and Hi.